TOM SATURLEY, AUCTIONEER AT TRANZON AUCTION PROPERTIES, ELECTED TO NATIONAL AUCTIONEERS ASSOCIATION BOARD

PORTLAND, MAINE - Thomas W. Saturley, CAI, President of Tranzon Auction Properties has been elected to serve on the Board of Directors for the National Auctioneers Association (NAA) - the largest professional auctioneers' organization in the nation.

Tranzon, LLC is a national auction company with 14 offices across the country. Saturley, a regional president for Tranzon, is a member of the Maine Auctioneers Association, New Hampshire Auctioneers Association and the Massachusetts Auctioneers Association. He has been an active member of the NAA for over ten years. During the first year of his three-year term on the NAA Board, Saturley will serve as vice chairman of the Education Committee.

The election took place during the NAA's 2002 Annual Meeting at the 53rd International Auctioneers Conference and Show, held recently in Orlando, Florida. More than 1,750 auction professionals attended the event.
